CTY’s National Advisory Board

CTY’s National Advisory Board is composed of 35 volunteers who provide advice to CTY leadership, help make the organization’s programs better known, and assist in its fundraising efforts. Most are parents of CTY students, and two are CTY alumni. All share a passion for the education of highly gifted students.

Major CTY Programs and Services

Talent Search –
conducts the nation’s oldest and most extensive university-based talent search for highly able youth.

Summer Academic Programs –
offers three-week residential and day programs at 19 sites across the US:
1. CTY Young Students Day Programs are for qualifying students who completed the 2nd, 3rd, or 4th grades.
2. CTY Young Students Day and Residential Programs are for qualifying students who completed 5th or 6th grades.
3. CTY and CAA Residential Programs are open to qualifying students up to age 17.

Distance Education –
Provides academically challenging courses in writing, mathematics, computer science, and physics, guided by CTY tutors. Uses online and CD formats to enable students to take accelerated courses year-round at home or school.

Academic Conferences –
Offers exciting one-day and overnight programs for talent search participants and their families at college, university, science center and museum sites around the country. These include Creative Connections, Discovery Days, Odyssey Series, Science and Technology Series, Career Symposium, and College Colloquia.

Research –
Conducts studies relating to gifted education and the nature of high academic ability.

West Coast Office –
Supports CTY’s growing talent search and summer programs in California and elsewhere in the western U.S.
